Guest Profile

Mr. Praveen Thirumurugan is a tech enthusiast by passion and is currently takes care of full stack development in Caterpillar Incorporation., Chennai. The role of Software Development Engineer is to work with cutting edge technologies on a specific product. With deep understanding on these topics, Praveen also guides many students and communities to actively pursue this domain.

He also focuses his skill set more on cloud technologies. His experience of building multiple scalable apps and making them available for use is commendable and noteworthy. Currently, he leads the Google Cloud Developer Community in Coimbatore. In GDG Cloud Coimbatore, there are around 2000 members who participate in events under this community. The members include students, professionals and startups. This community is also under the direct supervision of Google India and perks, swags and speakers from Google are also sent to this community.

His experience in organising hackathons and mentoring startup founders is also a great plus for him. Since his college days, he has been actively participating in hackathons and conferences across India and also in the US and Singapore. Google has found his community initiatives in Coimbatore commendable and invited for a fully funded trip to San Francisco, USA in 2018 for the Google Next Cloud Conference.
